SEC. 2. All acts of proceedings by or against a Township, in its corporate capacity, shall be in the name of the Board of Trustees of the Township.

SEC. 3. The Board of Trustees of each Township shall consist of a Clerk and two Justices of the Peace, except as otherwise provided in this act in respect to Justices of the Peace, in those Townships in which Cities and Towns are situated.

SEC. 4. In every Township in which any City or Town is situated, or which may consist of a City or Town, the number of Justices of the Peace to be elected shall be two more than the number of Wards in such City or Town, or in case such City or Town is not divided into Wards, then one additional Justice for each five hundred inhabitants, or if there are less than five hundred inhabitants, one additional Justice; for the purpose of obtaining the number of inhabitants in any such City or Town, the corporate authorities shall have power to take a census thereof.

SEC. 5. The first election for Township Boards of Trustees, shall be held on the first Thursday in August, eighteen hundred and sixty nine.

SEC. 6. Such election shall be held in all respects under the rules and regulations now prescribed by law, at such place in each Township as the County Commissioners may designate, and the return thereof shall be made to the Board of Commissioners of each County, who shall declare the result of said election, and within five days thereof shall notify the persons receiving the majority of votes in each Township, of their election.

SEC. 7. The persons who are elected at such election shall appear, within five days after service of notice, before the County Commissioners and qualify by taking and subscribing an oath of office, which oath shall be filed with the Clerk of the Board of Commissioners.

SEC. 8. The Board of Commissioners is authorized to decide in all cases of contested election, subject to appeal to the Superior Court of the County.

SEC. 9. The persons chosen at the first election under this act, shall continue in their office till the first Thursday in August, eighteen hundred and seventy one, and until their successors shall have qualified, when the regular election for said officers shall be held every two years thereafter.

SEC. 10. At the time and the manner authorized by this act for the election of Township Boards of Trustees, there shall be held an election for one Constable in each Township, who shall give bond and security in such reasonable sum as the Board of Trustees may deem sufficient, to be not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than two thousand dollars, and take the oath of office as now prescribed by law.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall have power to purchase and to hold for the use of the Township, such real estate as they may deem necessary, not to exceed one acre, and to erect thereon a Township house, which shall be as near central in location as may be; and for the purpose of buying such property and erecting such building, they are authorized, if they deem it expedient, to lay and collect a tax upon all the property in the Township, with the approval of a majority of the qualified voters of the Township, to be given at an election to be held for that purpose, under the directions of such Trustees.

SEC. 12. The Board shall have power to appoint its own meetings, and to adjourn from time to time.

SEC. 13. A majority of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 14. The Board of Trustees shall have authority, within their respective Townships, to lay out, alter, repair, or discontinue highways; to establish and settle ferries; to build and keep up bridges, subject to sub-division eleven, section eight, of the before recited acts concerning the government of counties; to lay off or discontinue cartways; to appoint overseers of highways; to allow and contract for the building of toll bridges, and to license the erection of gates across highways. This authority shall be exercised under the rules, regulations, restrictions and penalties, in all respects, prescribed and imposed in chapter one hundred and one of the Revised Code, upon the Justices of the late County Courts. The Clerk of the Board shall perform the duties therein enjoined upon the Clerk of the late County Court; and the Township Constable shall perform the duties imposed in said chapter on the Sheriff.

SEC. 15. In all cases of the exercise of authority under the preceding section, there may be an appeal by either party from the decision of the Township Board of Trustees to the Board of Commissioners of the County, whose decision in the case shall be final; and, on every appeal, the Clerk of the Board of Trustees shall transmit to the Commissioners all the papers in the case, and the parties shall be allowed to be heard before the Commissioners de novo.

SEC. 16. The Township Board of Trustees shall assess the taxable property of their Townships, and make return to the County Commissioners for revision, as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 17. The Board of Trustees of each Township shall make out a written report, upon the condition of the roads and bridges in their respective Townships, to the County Commissioners, at least ten days before regular terms of the Superior Courts of the County.

SEC. 18. The Board of Trustees shall audit all accounts against the Township, as directed in section ten of the act concerning the government of Counties; and shall cause semi-annual publications of all accounts, so audited, to be posted at the Township house, or other place of meeting, if there be no Township house, and three other public places in the Township.

SEC. 19. The Board of Trustees shall have power to lay and collect all taxes which may be required to defray the necessary expenses of the Township, and the Township Constable shall collect all taxes so laid and assessed.

SEC. 20. The Clerk of the Board of Trustees shall record all the proceedings of the Board, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and keep all its papers and hold them open to the examination of all persons, except on the Sabbath; disburse all moneys belonging to the Township, under the order of the Board, taking proper vouchers therefor, and making quarterly returns to the Board, if required, of all his receipts and disbursements.

SEC. 21. Each Justice of the Peace, who is a member of the Board, shall receive two dollars per diem for each day's attendance upon the meetings of the Board; and the Clerk shall receive the same per diem, with such additional compensation for his duties as Clerk as the Board may allow.

SEC. 22. The Commissioners of any county not included in this act, shall have power to designate their present election precincts, as Townships, for school and assessment purposes, until a proper survey is made and a report of the same is made to this body.

SEC. 23 All laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are repealed, and this act shall have force from the day of its ratification.

READ WHAT THE
HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsement to on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its terms sufficient."—Hon. ERASTUS WRIGHT.
"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and in the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!
Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the north-western part of the State in a country remarkable for the beauty and healthfulness there, together with the virtues of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate of Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

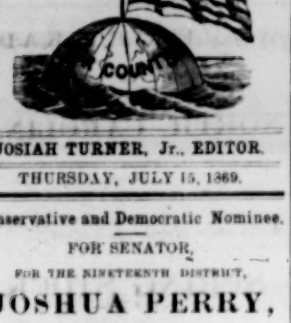
THE SENTINEL.



JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1869.

Conservative and Democratic Nominee.

FOR SENATOR,

FOR THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT,

JOSHUA PERRY,

OF FRANKLIN.

CHANGING THE TUNE.

It is a well known fact that the rebel Radical sheet, published in this city, the North Carolina Standard, was, prior to the late Virginia elections, an advocate of, and a well wisher to the success to the Wells, or extreme Radical, party of that State. This may be seen by reference to its columns for the last five or six weeks. Its sympathies were all with that ticket, and if Wells had been elected that paper would have been loud in its rejoicings, and heralded it as a great Radical triumph. This was the tone, too, of the Radical papers elsewhere. The two papers of Forney, "both daily," advocated the Wells ticket in Virginia, as the Republican ticket; so did the Radical organ at Richmond, the State Journal; so did the rural Radical sheets in this State, that live on government pap and always sneeze when the Standard takes snuff. The Star, at Rutherfordton, did not catch the cue, even up to its last issue, but speaks of the election in Virginia as having resulted unfavorable to its party, but consoles itself with the thought that "if Virginia can stand it we can; Ephraim is joined to his idols." In short, the whole Radical press, North and South, looked upon Wells as the representative of the true Radical party in Virginia, and on Walker as the representative of those liberal principles that had been repudiated by the Radicals, throughout the whole course of reconstruction.

But what a change the result has wrought in the feelings and views of our rebel Radical cotemporary. At first it was dumbfounded at the Virginia election news; it had but little to say. In a day or two, it found out that Wells was defeated because he represented the "extremists," of the party; next, that paper speaks of its friends as the "Wells Faction." Now he claims full fraternity with the successful party and heralds the election of the Conservative ticket in Virginia as a great Republican triumph! "How we apples do swim."

The truth is, the election in Virginia does not show a Radical, nor a Democratic triumph. It is, however, a triumph over the proscriptive policy, (or the worst features of it) of the Constitution adopted by the Radical Convention of Virginia, and was brought about by a compromise between the Conservative wing of the Republican party and the opponents of that party, who, although they did not get all they desired, took the proposed compromise as a choice of evils. No one, that we are aware of, pretends to claim the result as a Democratic victory, but it certainly is a victory of the combined Conservative element in the State over the proscriptive policy of the Wells party, which the Standard and other Radical organs favored before the election.

The Democrats and Conservatives of Virginia had examples of warning enough before them, of what result might be anticipated, should they attempt the fight with a straight-out organization, even with a numerical majority in the State. With the manipulation of the whole machinery of the election in Radical hands and the military under Radical control to shape the contest, they could entertain no reasonable hope of securing success. We think they acted wisely in securing all they could get, which was much more than the bulk of the Radicals in that State, and out of it, were willing to give them. The result has given the State a Constitution purged of its most odious and intolerant features, which were ingrafted in it by the "extremists," as the Standard now calls them, in the Convention, including all the Radical members—an overwhelming majority in that body; and at the same time it has placed the government of the State in the hands of honest, decent and liberal men, which is a triumph, but certainly not a Radical triumph.

The cool effrontery of the Standard in claiming the result in Virginia as a political victory of the party to which it belongs, can only be equalled by other acts of cool effrontery exhibited by that rebel Radical gymnast.

ENGLISH CORN LAWS.—The importance of the repeal of the Corn Laws, by the English Parliament, as announced by the telegraph some days since, and its bearing upon cereal crops of this country, is not yet fully comprehended or appreciated by the farmers in the grain growing sections. The throwing open of the British ports for the free importation of corn, wheat and other cereals, and flour made from the same, will increase the exportations from this country to an extent that would be difficult to calculate.

Our farmers may put in large crops of wheat this fall, for it will bring big prices next year.

RIOT AT LOUISBURG.

Two drinks more of whiskey and the peaceable village of Louisburg would have been the scene of a most sanguinary transaction. The Louisburg correspondent of the Sentinel has given our readers an account of the disgraceful particulars of the Republican meeting, and the nomination of Gen. Phil. Hawkins for the Senate.

In the opinion of all resonable men, riots and public disorders should be placed to the account of those who might have prevented them. Gen. Willie D. Jones and Gen. Phil. Hawkins should understand this, and that they were in more danger in the Louisburg riot than any other two persons. At one time a bloody fight was imminent, and it was only averted by the cool judgment and imperturbable temper of Capt. Jo. Davis and Mr. Benjamin T. Ballard, a magistrate of the county.

There are several gentleman from Franklin in the city at this time. One of them says it the difficulty had culminated in bloodshed, the carcases of Gen. Willie D. Jones and Gen. Phil. Hawkins, would have graced the oaks which stand before the Court House, for they would have been hung.

The want of provocation on the part of Radica's and negroes for the difficulty which they sought, put them wholly in the wrong. They sought it with one whose real character they did not understand.—Farriss, the Governor's keeper of the Capitol, approached Capt. Joseph Davis and told him he understood his party was to attack him there that day; Capt. Davis said he had not heard of it. "I have heard that you and your brother are going to attack me," said Farriss. "I have no brother here, and I have no such intention on my part," answered Capt. Davis. "Who gave you this information?" "I have the information," said Farris, "from a very reliable source." Capt. Davis then denounced his informant as a liar, and told Farriss he believed he had made the whole story himself. At this time three young men stepped up and Farriss went into a drinking saloon; the young men followed him; Farriss drew a pistol; one of the young men seized him by the arm and shook him until he droped his pistol. Farriss then broke and double quicked it to Dennis' Hotel, making good time and a safe retreat.

Col. Harris, of the 40th Regiment, Route Agent on the N. C. Railroad, and member from Franklin, called for the militia to fall in and disarm the white men, and the negroes assembled armed with clubs.

Hearing there was a difficulty between Farris and Capt. Davis, every man who knows either of them, without inquiry would know who was in the wrong.—When the militia, or rather, the mob of negroes, headed by Harris and Galloway, the colored Senator from New Hanover, were forming, the three young men, with revolvers, stood at the corner of the street some hundred and fifty yards below the hotel and the line of the militia. On they came, yelling, shouting and brandishing their clubs until the collision seemed inevitable. The citizens besought Harris to desist, but he disregarded them and marched on with his half drunk negroes; for Gen. Hawkins had that day given a free treat, and most of the negroes were more or less intoxicated.

The purpose of the citizens was to fire on the mob as soon as they crossed a little ditch just in their front; but before the mob reached the ditch, Benjamin T. Ballard seconded by Capt. Davis approached Col. Harris and threatened to arrest him if he did not desist and disperse his mob. Harris dismissed his mob and the bloody tragedy did not come off.

We have heard that Gen. Hawkins cried out to the negroes "to disarm the white men." We hope it is not true. Gen. Wiley Jones took no part except he is the brother Leaguer of the negro and partakes of the honors which they bestow. The citizens of Louisburg were determined that he should have partaken of the sorrows of his black, infuriated comrades, if they had unnecessarily shed the blood of one man.

Nothing but the forbearance of the Conservative white people of the State have prevented the occurrence of bloody scenes, such as this riot at Louisburg promised to be. The head center of the League, Governor Holden, is now parading his worthless militia over the State to intimidate the white men who will not join his secret Leagues.

We regret that Galloway, (colored,) was in this mob and behaved badly; we were disposed to look upon him not only as the leader, but as the most decent man of his party, white or black.

The white men who lead the negroes, should understand that when the bloody fray does come, they will not be allowed to withdraw, as Gen. Hawkins and Gen. Jones did at Louisburg. They had as well go in and take part, for they will be made to suffer with their brethren.

OUR CANDIDATE JOSHUA PERRY ESQUIRE.

The Card of Mr. Perry, will be read with interest by the voters of this District. Mr. Perry is not known as a politician, but a gentleman of liberal education and views, who has devoted himself to agricultural pursuits. The tax-payers of the District, by electing him, will have a tax-payer in the Legislature who will have to pay a portion of the tax which he may impose upon others. Mr. Perry is sure to keep out of the Ring. Mr. Hawkins his competitor we think is sure to enter the ring. In fact we look upon him as the candidate of the ring. Our friends in Franklin think Mr. Hawkins weaker by five hundred votes than any other candidate that could be started. They say if Wake will give Mr. Perry as good vote as was given to Hon. Sion Rogers in the late election they can easily elect Mr. Perry.

The ex-Confederate Gen. Kirby Smith seems to be popular as an instructor of youth. In one State alone, says the Louisville Courier Journal, 1,600 ladies have promised him their sons as pupils for his military academy.

BLOODY BATTLE IN TUCKER'S BACK YARD!

JOE HOLDEN, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE, WOUNDED!

Dr. Haywood Called In, While Jim Harris runs for the Governor and Calls for 'Pence!?

Since the battle of Davie Street and two rencounters with Coleman, late Attorney General and now Consul to Stetten, Jo. has not had a single mill or bout, though he he has been spoiling for a fight. In the late excursion to Norfolk he cursed Cebe Harris and quarreled aloud with three gentlemen who wanted pesce.

On yesterday he entered the store of a Merchant in this city and abused him soundly, using such "cuss" language as his father, the Governor, used to Chief Justice Pearson.

The Merchant was so patient and forbearing under the cursing, that Jo mistook forbearance for timidity. The more the Merchant would avoid the difficulty, the greater grew Jo's zeal for the fray. Finally Jo challenged him to a back yard for a fight; the challenge was no sooner given than accepted. The parties walked to Tuckers' back yard. Eyeing each other for a moment only, Jo asked, "are you armed sir."

"Only with the weapons God and nature gave," was the reply.

At it they went. Jo's fighting did not come up to his talking, his blows were not well aimed, or forcibly delivered. In fact, he relied more upon his nails than his fist. He attempted to scratch while his adversary was delivering heavy blows. At the fifth blow given by the adversary, Jo. fell. The Merchant did not understand the rules of the ring. When Jo. was down he did not stop, but continued his heavy blows, until Jo. cried, "stop, enough." Nor did he then stop until Jo. had three times called for quarters. It was a fair old time, old field fight, on Jo's time, terms, with his own weapons and on his own ground. Jo's fighting weight is 185, that of the Merchant 175.

Joe is well whipped and severely bruised, his adversary has one small scratch on his face, Joe was taken to Prarie's grogery, where Farris the keeper of the Capitol and other friends administered to his wants.—Dr. Haywood was sent for and Jim Harris flew to the Governor. Dr. Haywood did not come, the Governor did. The Governor made no speech as he did after the Davie Street fight. We are not advised as to whether the Governor approved of this fight. We suppose he did not, for the fight was too fair for his approval. It is the foul thing that wins the Governor. In a public speech he approved of the Davie Street fight on the part of his son because it was foul and cowardly.

Let us have pesce.

BROKE HIS TICKLER!

CAN'T GO TO SEE THE CIRCUS!

CAN'T SEE THE ELEPHANT!

"Our beloved" Governor's son Jo, Speaker of the House of Representatives, it will be remembered, broke his tickler in the presence of many gentlemen, and a pretty woman with whom he was travelling.—Now that everybody, negroes, boys and all, are out enjoying the Circus, Jo can't go, because his face is so much disfigured by the mercantile mauling he received on yesterday.

We hope Col. Ames, Confederate Proprietor of the Circus, will take pity on Joe, and, in consideration of his present wounds and former services to the Confederacy, send the band and cavalcade by the Governor's House, that Jo may hear the music, take a peep at the camel, and speak to the monkey on the pony. He don't want to see the elephant; he saw him in Tucker's back yard, on yesterday. It will do him good to see the heroic Herr Lengel riding with the uncaged tiger on the cage.

Now let the "god of turpentine" shower down his balls. "Who's afraid."

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 19TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT, COMPOSED OF THE COUNTIES OF WAKE AND FRANKLIN.

The following resolution, passed at a meeting of Conservatives and Democrats, at Franklinton, on the 12th inst., will explain the manner of my being made a candidate for your suffrages, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Senator Wynne, as well as the principles which I shall advocate:

"Resolved, That we place before the people of the 19th Senatorial District, Joshua Perry, of the county of Franklin, as a candidate upon the platform of the Constitution, universal suffrage and general amnesty, an honest and economical expenditure of the public money, a reduction of the Taxes by which our people are oppressed, and in opposition to the extravagances and peculations of the present administration."

I stand upon this broad platform without qualification or reservation.

I have heretofore opposed, and, if elected, shall continue to resist, that Radical carpet-bag influence, which has involved the State in debt almost beyond the hope of payment,—a debt which has reached the monstrous accumulation of upwards of forty-five millions of dollars. Simply to state the amount is sufficient to startle a people already impoverished; and the visits of the tax-gatherers will soon make the reality more fearful.

To build an indefinite number of Railroads, with bonds, instead of money, is such a policy as no prudent man would adopt in the management of his own affairs, and, applied to the management of State affairs, cannot recommend itself to sensible, honest, prudent men. The credit of the State is now at its lowest ebb. State bonds are worth less than thirty cents (in gold) in the dollar. When the State spends one dollar on its numerous Railroads, it receives therefor only thirty cents in work!

If the people do not interpose and put a stop to the expenditures of a reckless, prodigal Legislature, manipulated in carpet bag interests, the money lenders of New York will refuse to buy the bonds, or have anything to do with them; and the price of them shows that they have nearly arrived at this conclusion already.

I do not propose, fellow-citizens, to indulge in empty promises. They are easily made, and are generally as easily broken.—Nor do I deem it necessary to present other issues than those here referred to, or to discuss them at any length. They need no discussion. They are fearfully palpable. I have not shaped my politics to secure a nomination,—which, indeed, my inclinations and pursuits, if not opposed by a sense of duty, would urge me to decline,—nor will I do so to secure my election. I stand square upon the platform of Universal Suffrage, General Amnesty, and old-fashioned honesty, economy and retrenchment in our State affairs.

I have adopted this mode of making myself known to the voters of the Nineteenth District, because of the limited space of time before the election, which will preclude as thorough a canvass as is usual.

A CARD FROM GEN. F. P. BLAIR.

NEW YORK, July 10, 1869.

To the Editor of the New York Express:

The N. Y. Tribune and the Times do me a great injustice in their notice of the reunion of the officers of the Army of the Gulf, at Long Branch, New Jersey.

I was urged to attend this meeting and banquet, and declined to do so until a further refusal would have appeared churlish. I was appointed to respond to one of the regular toasts and refused to do so. My reluctance to attend or speak at the banquet grew out of the apprehension that these army reunions were being used as Radical stalking-horses. The result justified the suspicions I had entertained, as an expression which cannot be tortured into anything but a compliment to our gallant soldiers was eagerly seized by a portion of those present and made the occasion of a gross and indecent insult to an invited guest.

Very Respectfully,
FRANK P. BLAIR.

"CASTING ALL YOUR CARE UPON HIM."

There is no sorrow, Lord, too light
To bring in prayer to Thee;
There is no anxious care too slight
To wake thy sympathy.

Thou who hast trod the stormy road
Will share our least distress;
The love which bore the greater load
Will not refuse the less.

There is no secret sigh we breathe
But meets thy ear divine,
And every cross grows light beneath
The shadow, Lord, of Thine.

SINGULAR FREAK OF LIGHTNING.—On Tuesday afternoon last, while the storm was ranging, the dwelling house, occupied by Mr. John Rohweeder, on Fifth street, was struck by lightning in a singular manner, the bolt having pursued a very unusual course. It appears the lightning entered the house about three feet from the ground, striking a nail that must have projected from the siding, which was partially melted and also left traces around it as if burned with powder, then following a piece of studding up to the eaves, where it was conducted by a tin gutter to the ridge of the house, where it raised the shingles about three inches, and appeared to pass thence to a lightning rod, and off at the point, melting the point. The distance from the point of the rod to the place where the bolt entered the house is about twenty feet. There are positive evidences that the fluid entered the building at the place above stated, and followed the course indicated above, which makes it appear very strange that lightning should strike so near the earth and pursue an upward course. Near the place where the bolt entered was a quantity of iron and also a window partially open. A number of persons familiar with the proprieties of electricity have examined the premises, and all unite in the opinion that this is what may be termed an upward stroke, and that there is no probability of the fluid striking the rod and descending. There are a few instances on record where lightning has performed such a singular freak.—Winona (Minn.) Republicrn, July 9th.

Stockholders Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the R. & G. Railroad, was held at the office of the company in this City, to day. We shall give a full report of the proceedings to-morrow. All the old Directors were re-elected.

At a meeting of the Directors, held after the Stockholders' meeting adjourned, all the former officers were re elected.

Supreme Court.—Court met pursuant to adjournment; all the Justices present. The following cases were argued:

State vs. Brantly & Watkins from Wake County—Attorney General for State; J. W. Norpe for Defendant.

Bledsoe vs. the State—Wake County.—Haywood, Fowle and Badger, for Plaintiff; Attorney General for State.

Hughes, Ex., vs. Person, et al, Northampton County—Barnes and Peebles for Plaintiff; Bragg and M. W. Ransom for Defendant.

Long vs. Pate & Person, Northampton County; Barnes and Peebles for Plaintiff; Bragg and Ransom for Defendant.

Stephenson vs. Person—Northampton County; Barnes & Peebles for Plaintiff; Bragg and Ransom for Defendant.

Tall Clover.—Capt. W. E. Pierce, of Swift Creek, has left at our office a sample of red clover, raised on his farm, measuring four feet in height. This beats the brag clover of the Georgia farmer, mentioned in the papers a few days ago, which was only three feet and a half high. Captain P. combined clover and Thimothy on his low lands, and clover with orchard grass on his highlands. A sample of Timothy, shown us, taken from his field, measures four feet six inches in hight.

Personal.—Among the arrivals in the city by the last trains, we see the names of Henry K. Elyson, Esq., of the Richmond Dispatch, and Isaac Davenport, Esq., of Richmond; Rev. B. Craven, D. D., President of Trinity College; Col. S. S. Royster, C. H. K. Taylor, Esq., and T. Brown Venable, Esq., of Granville, and Gen. Martindale, of Jamesville.

New Depot.—The Chatham Railroad Company contemplate the erection of a large Warehouse in this city, at an early day, to be located on the Raleigh and Gaston Road, in rear of the Foundry and Machine Shops of B. P. Williamson, Esq.

Nurses and Babies.—Nurses are sometimes very careless of their little charges. A gentleman informed us yesterday, that he had seen several baby carriages passing his place of business in one day, in which the little innocents in them were nearly suffocated by their hats or bonnets having fallen over their faces, and allowed to so remain by those having the charge of them. He took the liberty in these cases of stopping the carriages and removing the covering from their faces, and he assures us that in two or three, he does not think the poor little things could have lived much longer without relief.

Koskoo, the great Liver Invigorator, Blood Purifier, and Renovator, prepared by Dr. J. J. It regulates the secretions, eradicates all humors or taints, restores lost or wasted nervous power, and at the same time builds up and imparts tone and vigor to the whole system.

Gen. Hancock in Montana.—General Hancock and staff had a public reception at Helena, Montana, on the 24th ultimo.—A train of carriages and cavalcade of horsemen met the General and his party several miles distance and escorted them into the city. A dinner was provided in the afternoon. In response to a toast in his honor, Gen. Hancock spoke briefly. In the evening a salute of thirteen guns was fired, and a serenading party visited the General, when he made ano her short speech.

Young Bennett's yacht—the Dauntless—sailed from New York to Queenstown in 12 days 17 hours, 6 minutes, and 12 seconds. This beats the Henrietta's time; and it was done against heavy weather.

A Standard History by General Lee—A Work of National and Permanent Value—Memoirs of the War by General Henry Lee, Thoroughly Revised and Annotated by General Robert E. Lee, who has added an Entirely New Biography of his Father—One Volume, Octavo, Six Hundred Pages, With New Steel Portraits of General Henry Lee and General Nathaniel Greene; Beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion Crossing the Pedee," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis;" and Five Original Maps and Plans.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War, in the Southern Department of the United States, is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this edition, revised and corrected by General Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the Author, is made doubly interesting and valuable by an entirely new "Biography of his Father," prepared by General Lee, from materials never before made use of.

It is a work whose value is permanent, for it relates to the foundations of this great nation, and details a history of which every American citizen is proud. While the history is chiefly of operations at the South, yet considerable space is devoted to Northern movements and battles, thus giving the work a National value. Among many other matters, it embraces

The Campaign of 1777, and the Surrender of Burgoyne; Sir William Howe's Departure from New York, and the Battle of Brandywine; Washington's Advance and the Narrow Escape of Hamilton and Lee; Sir William Howe's March to Philadelphia, and the Battle of Germantown; Count Donop's Movement to Fort Mercer, and the Repulse of the Hessians at Red Bank; Sir William Howe's Advance against Washington, and Return to Philadelphia; Washington's Winter-quarters at Valley Forge; Sir William Howe's Recall and Sir Henry Clinton's Assumption of Command; Sir Henry Clinton's Evacuation of Philadelphia, and the Battle of Monmouth; Arrest of General Charles Lee; Gen. Howe's Defeat at Charleston by Col. Campbell and General Lincoln's Assumption of Command; Gen. Moultrie's Dislodging of Gardner; Gen. Ashe routed by Prevost at the Savannah; John Rutledge Dictator in South Carolina; Battle of Stono; Gen. Matthews destroys the Stores at Portsmouth and Gosport; French Fleet arrives under Count D'Estaing; Siege of Savannah; Sir Henry Clinton Sails for the South; Seige and Fall of Charleston; Gen. Gates appointed to the command of the Southern Department; Battle of Camden; Death of Baron De Kalb; Cornwallis invades North Carolina; Battle of King's Mountain; Death of Col. Williams, of South Carolina; Gates Succeeded by Gen. Greene; Delaware and Maryland added to the Southern Department; Lieut. Colonel Lee, with his Legion, ordered to the South; Baron Steuben in Command in Virginia; Washington's Magnanimity to Gates; Battle of Cowpens; Death of Gen. Davidson; Battle of Guilford Court House; Death of Col. Webster; Arnold's March to Richmond; Phillips' March to Petersburg; Lafayette on the James River; Lee joins Marion; Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; Death of Major Eaton; Affair at Quimby Bridge; Adventure of Seargeant Champe; Cornwallis advances upon Virginia; Death of Gen. Phillips; Lafayette's Retreat; Escape of the Assembly and Governor; Battle of Green Spring; Execution of Col. Hayne; Battle of the Eutaws; Robert Morris made Superintendent of Finance; National Bank Established; Battle between the French and English Fleets; Washington pushes South; Sir H. Clinton moves on Connecticut; Cornwallis Besieged at Yorktown; Death of Col. Scammel; Surrender of Cornwallis; Thanks of Congress; Irruption of the Cherokees; Capture of Capt. Armstrong; Treason in Greene's Camp; Savannah evacuated by the British, and the War closed in Georgia; Death of Col. Laurens; Charleston evacuated, and Peace restored to the South.

The historical value and interest of this excellent history make it a work which will be purchased by all persons who buy books at all, while its thorough correction and revision by Gen. R. E. Lee, and the addition of his new biography, prepared by him from private and personal materials never before given to the public, give it greatly increased and peculiar interest. The fact that it is the only book now published, even in part, from Gen. Lee's pen, gives it an interest possessed by no other work.

Among the new materials introduced in the biography, are important letters from President Madison, Gens. Lafayette, Greene, and Hamilton, Governor Rutledge, and others, letters to Washington, Madison, Governor Reed, Gen. Wayne, and others; and a most interesting series of letters to his eldest son, Charles Carter Lee, in which his advice and instruction in regard to his son's studies, reading and general conduct, are fully given.

The Work is handsomely printed and bound; the Steel Engravings and Lithographed Maps are engraved in the most artistic style; and no expense nor care have been spared in its preparation to make it worthy alike of its subject and its author.

The book is sold only by canvassing agents, and we wish to secure a good agent in every county.

Personal.—We learn that the Hon. E. A. Rollins, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is now acting as President of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, at the Campany's Branch Office, in Philadelphia, during the temporary absence in Europe, of the President, C. H. Clark, Esq. Mr. Rollins has been an active member of the Board of Directors of this Company since its organization, and in giving to its interest the benefit of his personal co-operation, and the advantages of his enlarged experience and extensive acquaintance, we confidently look for a renewed impetus to be given to the already unprecedented progress of this great National Institution.

See advertisement of P. F. Pescud, General Agent.

The opposing Radical factions of this county are mustering their forces in anticipation of the fight at the Convention Saturday next. Neither side will cave in easily; but the Larkins clique give promise of the most dogged determination, as they have half a mind to let the Convention slide and act independently, and without paying it the slightest regard.—Wil. Journal.

We publish the following by request and call the attention of those concerned to the proposed Convention:

To the Clerks of the Superior Courts throughout the State:

In view of the fact that there exists great doubt and uncertainty in regard to many of the duties pertaining to the office of Superior Court Clerks under the new laws, and as many of these doubts and difficulties might be removed or their remedy suggested by a conference and interchange of views of Clerks,

We, the undersigned, after due consideration and consultation with other Clerks upon the subject, thought it proper and necessary to invite our brother Clerks throughout the State to meet at the Court House, in Raleigh, on Tuesday the 3d day of August next, for the purpose of adopting a settled and uniform mode of keeping our records, and for the discussion and more fully understanding all the duties and responsibilities pertaining to our said offices, and we hope that every Superior Court Clerk in the State who can possibly do so will meet us, and that they will come prepared with memoranda of the subjects and questions in regard to which there is doubt or difficulty. It affords us much pleasure to state that W. A. Smith, Esq., President of the North Carolina Railroad has kindly consented to allow us to pass and return on said Railroad for one fare, and we trust the Presidents and Managers of the other roads in the State will give us the same generous assistance. Clerks will obtain tickets of station agents which will be issued at one fare.

The newspapers throughout the State will do the public a service by publishing this notice.

Very Respectfully,

STATE NEWS.

A Sad and Disastrous Affair Near Ridgeway—A House Destroyed and a Woman Burned Seriously.—On Saturday night the elegant residence of Mr. Thos. Carroll, some two miles from Ridgeway, on the Raleigh and Gaston road was burned to the ground, occasioning the probable death of a white house maid. The particulars of the sad affair are in substance as follows:

About 9:30 o'clock in the evening, and immediately after supper, the family and visitors were s'artled by a piercing shriek coming from the cook room adjoining the dining room—the two forming an L from the main building—and in a moment the white servant girl, one Sarah Salmon, was seen to spring from the room with her clothes on fire, the blaze leaping up over her person with a rapidity that was dreadful to to look upon. The poor creature, in her fright, ran into the p rch of the main building vainly endeavoring to escape the consuming flames, where she was caught and the fire instantly extinguished by being smothered with a carpet. She had, however, been badly burned in the few seconds that her clothes were on fire, they being cotton goods that invited a rapidity of the work of the fire. It being discovered that the room from which she had escaped was on fire, she was instantly removed into the yard and attention paid to the building.—At a glance it was seen that there would be no chance to save the building—the woman lamps with Cresent oil from a large keg sitting in a lock room between the dining room and kitchen, and in some manner ignited one of the lamps before it was closed, which she immediately threw upon the floor, the oil still running from the keg, and this igniting at once set the whole room in a blaze, the woman escaping from the room in the condition already discribed, the rapidity with which the oil burned, the whole keg being on fire, rendered it impossible to put the fire out with the limited means at hand.

Attention was at once turned to the saving of the furniture, and by the time the fire had reached the main building almost the entire contents thereof had been removed to a safe distance, the negroes of the place working with an energy that defied either fatigue or danger. At 11 o'clock the whole building fell in, leaving the family, that but a couple of hours before were enjoying a quiet meal, houseless and homeless. The writer of this was present on the occasion, enjoying a visit to the former pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, and expresses a sincere sympathy with the estimable family in their misfortune. A physician arrived about 10.30 o'clock to the assistance of the unfortunate woman that was burned, and rendered what aid was possible to her, but her recovery was deemed very doubtful, over half of her person having been badly burned.—Roanoke News.

Personal.—Bishop Wightman, of the M. E. Church, arrived in the city, yesterday morning, accompanied by Rev. M. C. Thomas. During his stay he will be the guest of Rev. R. A. Willis.—Journal Com. 14th.

Probable Election.—In consequence of the removal of Mr. W. H. S. Sweet to another part of the State, says the Journal of Commerce, there will probably soon be an election to fill the vacancy this will cause in the State Senate.

Another Excursion.—There will be a grand excursion over the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and through to Old Point and the Capes, on the 20th, 21st and 22nd inst.

THE SAENGERFEST.

[From the New York Herald.]

From Baltimore we have an ample report of the celebration of the eleventh bi annual festival of the German Saengerfest, or North eastern Saengerbund, in that city yesterday. The procession, diversified in its component parts by a fine military muster and a complete tournout of the civic societies, with delegations from other cities, was organized in six divisions, the line requiring two hours to march past a given point. Utilitarian, industrious and useful, the German emigrant never forfeits his home associations and never gives up his love for outdoor amusements. In all countries, where the law permits, he associates with other Germans, sings, performs on musical instruments, joins a regiment and makes and drinks lager. He finds sunshine and creates an ideal Rhine in every clime. He is, consequently, particularly at home in the United States, and hence, in a great measure, the peculiarly native zest with which he conduc's celebrations such as that which was observed in Baltimore. As a constituents part of the American nation the progress of the Germans is already immense; its future and future results immeasurable by anticipation. Men now living in New York recollect when the first lager beer saloon was opened in the city.—It was in a basement, and they, as boys, wondered at it. They know to-day what it heralded and will read of the Saengerfest with pleasure.

TELEGRAPHIC.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 14.—Revenue to-day six hundred and seventy-four thousand.

A few of many visitors were admitted to the President, who is busy arranging business for a two weeks absence.

Supervisor Stallwood telegraphs the arrest of collector Willis and deputy collector Quill for alleged blindness to illict distillation.

The President has appointed James H. Foote Pension Agent at Raleigh, North Carolina.

Admiral Poore succeeds Admiral Hoff in command of the squadron in Cuban waters, who asks to be relieved on account of ill health.

George Peabody is sick, though not seriously.

The Yerger, habeas corpus argument lasted four hours. Attorne General Hoar strongly combatted Chase's jurisdiction. At the close of the hearing Chase said he would inform counsel when he had digested the argument.

NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, July 14.—Proceedings against deputy surveyor Keith are in suspense awaiting the result of a disposition on his part to make important disclosures.

Auguste Conturie was arrested this afternoon by Marshal Packard on a warrant from Commissioner Moban, and paroled till morning. A warrant has also been issued for the arrest of Conturie's chief clerk. Collector Casey labors under many disadvantages in the prosecution of these cases on account of the absence of district attorney Morgan, who has gone to Europe, leaving his office in charge of a clerk just at a time when efficient legal aid is imperatively necessary for the protection of the interest of the government. It is the universal opinion of United States officers here that able special counsel should be appointed by the government for these cases on account of the large number implicated, and the immense amounts involved, and the labor attached, and the determined efforts of interested parties to defeat government officers. Parties connected with the ring freely stated confidence in their ability to triumph, no matter what evidence was brought against them, having unlimited command of money and influential backers.

Judge Duret of the U. S court is also absent, having authorized Collector Casey to approve bonds in these cases, but in case of disapproved bonds they have to be sent to Judge Duret for acceptance or rejection.

Internal Revenue Supervisor Conkling leaves to-night for Washington. He states that further aggressive action against revenue defrauders in his department is shortly to be taken and interesting developments made.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Harrisburg, July 14.—The Committee on resolutions in the Democratic Convention made a report to-day. The resolutions declared against the exercise of doubtful constitutional power; that Pennsylvania would never give up self government; that the ratification of the XVth Amendment should go before the people; that the negro should not have the ballot; that the finances need reform; that labor reforms should be encouraged; that the whole reconstruction policy tends to destroy Republican government, and establish tyranny; that our soldiers should not be forgotten; that our sympathies should be given to the nations struggling for liberty; and that our system of taxation is burdensome and should be done away with. The report was unanimously accepted. Gen. Hancock's name was received with vociferous applause. A letter from Gen. Hancock, dated May 21st, was read, positively prohibiting the use of his name.—Several declared their determination to vote for him in spite of it. On the first ballot Asa Packer got 78, Gen. W. S. Hancock 22, Geo. W. Cass 48 and Gen. Wm. McCandless 5. On the second ballot Packer received 68, Cass 47 and Hancock 19. Packer was declared the nominee.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, July 14.—The State Educational Association convened at Lexington to-day. Gen. Lee was present and was nominated for President, but declined. The session will last several days.

TEXAS.

Galveston, July 14.—Fourteen cars have been sent out from Harrisburg, Texas, with boats to rescue the sufferers by the flood in Colorado Valley, who took refuge in the tree tops in Eagle Lake bottom for two days. Positive information has been received that the water was two feet over the tops of the telegraph poles on farms in Eagle Lake bottom which are cultivated. Various rumors come from Bastrop, but as communication is entirely cut off none can be credited. It is impossible to arrive at the extent of the loss to towns along the Colorado till the water falls. The rivers near San Antonio are out of their banks.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, what wonder they arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these *Pills

The Daily Sentinel.

THE GATHERING HOME.

They are gathering homeward from every land
One by one,
As their weary feet touch the shining strand,
One by one;
Their brows are inclosed in a golden crown,
Their travel-stained garments are all laid down,
And clothed in white garments they rest on the mead,
Where the Lamb doth love his chosen to lead,
One by one.

Before they rest they pass through the strife,
One by one;
Through the waters of death they enter life,
One by one
To some are the floods of the river still,
As they ford on their way to the heavenly hill;
To others the waves run fierce and wild,
Yet they reach the home of the undefiled,
One by one.

We, too, shall come to the river side,
One by one,
We are nearer its waters each eventide,
One by one,
We can hear the noise and dash of the stream
Now, and again through our life's deep dream;
Some times the floods all the banks overflow,
Some times in ripples and small waves go,
One by one.

Jesus, Redeemer, we look to Thee,
One by one,
We lift up our voices tremblingly,
One by one,
The waves of the river are dark and cold,
We know not the place where our feet may hold,
Thou who did'st pass through in deep midnight,
Strengthen us, send us the staff and the light,
One by one.

Plant Thou Thy feet beside us we tread,
One by one,
On Thee let us lean each drooping head,
One by one,
Let not thy strong arm around us be twined,
We shall cast our fears and cares to the wind,
Saviour, Redeemer, with Thee full in view,
Smilingly, gladsomely, shall we pass through,
One by one.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Esta e—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents tost already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address
